Quora Insincere Questions Classification

For this project, we need to identify the disparity between sincere and insincere questions.

To exploring the balance we used catplot with our target feature. The figure depicts that the disparity is large, and the sincere questions is much more than insincere questions, so, it is imbalanced.

For modeling we are trying different models such as Logistic Regression to enhance the performance.